

WE HONOR VETERANS

Helping Providers Care for Veterans at the End of Life

“America’s veterans have done everything asked of them in their mission to serve our country and we believe it is never too late to give them a hero’s welcome home. Now it is time that we step up, acquire the necessary skills and fulfill our mission to serve these men and women with the dignity they deserve.”

We Honor Veterans, a program of NHPCO in collaboration with the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) invites hospices, state hospice organizations and VA partners to join a pioneering program focused on respectful inquiry, compassionate listening and grateful acknowledgment.

By recognizing the unique needs of America’s veterans and their families, community providers, in partnership with VA staff, will learn how to accompany and guide them through their life stories toward a more peaceful ending.

Launched in September 2010, We Honor Veterans provides tools and resources that encourage providers to:

- ◆ Commit to honoring veterans at the end of life
- ◆ Assess their current ability to serve veterans
- ◆ Provide veteran-centric education for staff
- ◆ Measure Quality and Outcomes

PEACE AT LAST: Stories of Hope and Healing for Veterans and Their Families

by Deborah L. Grassman

This book takes the reader on a journey of understanding and growth. While caring for thousands of veterans in a hospice setting over a 25-year career in a VA hospital, the author gathered the veterans’ stories of pain and redemption, personal awakening, and peace. Designed to help caregivers, family members, and veterans themselves understand the impact of war and military culture on lives and emotions. Softcover: 272 pages

War and the Soul: Healing Our Nation’s Veterans from Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

By Edward Tick

Describes how to heal war trauma in veterans, their families, and communities. Drawing on history, mythology, and soldiers’ stories from World War I to Iraq, it affirms the deep damage war does to the psyche and addresses how to reclaim the soul from the effects of war. Softcover: 272 pages

Chicken Soup for the Veteran’s Soul: Stories to Stir the Pride and Honor the Courage of Our Veterans

by Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, and Sidney R. Slagter

A collection of true-life experiences of extraordinary men and women who changed the course of history by their acts of valor in World War II, the Korean War, Vietnam and the Persian Gulf War. Their experiences offer a glimpse of timeless history, revealing moments of compassion, bravery, respect and reverence. Softcover: 384 pages

The Forgotten Veterans

By Stephen M. Reay

The poignant story of The Forgotten Veterans is told by the principal character, a Vietnam veteran himself, who has a first-hand understanding of the horrors of combat and the challenges faced by young men and women trying to return to their civilian lives, jobs and families. This book forms a meaningful and timely testimony for the need to preserve America’s commitment to all of its veterans, particularly those whose lives have been wounded forever. Softcover: 134 pages
